

RESOLUTION A.201(VI)

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION (ILO)

The Assembly,

Recalling the close association in maritime matters existing between IMCO and the ILO which is expressed not only in formal agreements but also in joint effort in practical work,

Noting that this year the ILO celebrates its 50th Anniversary and has also achieved the great distinction of being awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace,

Decides to instruct the Secretary-General to convey to the Director-General of the ILO the warmest congratulations of this Organization.

*29 October 1969
Agenda item 24*

OTHER DECISIONS

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

The Assembly approved the agenda for the sixth session.

15 October 1969, Agenda item 1

ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENTS

The Assembly elected by acclamation the following delegates to hold office until the seventh regular session of the Assembly:

President of the Assembly:	Mr. H.R. Bardarson (Iceland)
First Vice-President:	Mr. S. Nowicki (Poland)
Second Vice-President:	Mr. J.S. Tarka (Nigeria)

15 October 1969, Agenda item 2

APPOINTMENT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

The Assembly appointed a Credentials Committee composed of Argentina, Bulgaria, Iran, the Malagasy Republic and Switzerland.

15 October 1969, Agenda item 4